

Please share your ideas and thoughts with us about all of these or just some of them. We really want to hear your views.

Moving on up.

How do you think you would like to celebrate moving from Guides to Rangers?

Moving on up.

..from Rangers to adult leadership or Girlguiding Inspire?

...from being a Young Leader to adult leadership?

What do you think your section uniform should look like in the future?
You could draw a picture or tell us what you think.

What are your favourite guiding activities? What activities should still be around 10 years from now, or even in 2060?

What are you most looking forward to doing when you move up to the next section for you?

Tell us more!

Guiding is special to me because...

These things should always be part of Guiding...

Thank you..
